

VIE- GROUP RESIDENT ENGINEER ASSISTANT

N.B. VIE is a specific assignment. To be eligible for a VIE mission, the candidate must meet the following criteria:

- Age between 18 and 28 years old
- Being a citizen of the European Economic Area (28 countries members of the European Union and Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway and Monaco)

Mission & Responsibilities

Under the responsibility of the Group Resident Engineer Manager, the VIE Group Resident Engineer Assistant has a transversal function providing support to German Group Resident Teams in the administration of quality management and as well assisting the development of a system for the field Survey.

He/she will be based within the Quality team in Munich to participate in Quality management and field data collection, data analysis and description specification and methodologies for the warranty activity.

The main responsibilities of the VIE are as follows:

- Assist in collecting field data from the customer systems.
- Feeds and updates customer information within Valeo Systems.
- Specified field-data collection for the automobile producer worldwide.
- Evaluate statistical methodologies applied for the Warranty treatment.

The Group resident Manager or Regional Quality Director may ask the VIE to take additional responsibilities or to carry out specific analysis and follow-up.

Education & Skills

If you are willing to experience an international assignment within an innovative company, we are looking for a rigorous, autonomous and flexible candidate.

- Engineering diploma with Reliability and Quality speciality.
- 6 month in an industrial environment.
- English : Fluent ; German : Spoken

- Starting Date : June 2019